

UNIT RULE IS ABROGATED BY DEMOS

Convention Decides no State Shall Be So Bound Except Where It Is Law

VICTORY FOR PROGRESSIVES

Harmon Hard Hit by Action, Losing 18 Votes From Ohio Delegation

BALTIMORE, June 26.—The progressives in the national Democratic convention carried a motion at tonight's session, abrogating the rule by which some state delegations were bound to cast their votes as a unit.

The fight for and against the rule was waged particularly about the state of Ohio, where 18 district delegates had been instructed by primaries to vote for Woodrow Wilson, but where the state convention, controlled by the Harmon forces, had invoked the unit rule, binding all Ohio delegates to the Ohio governor.

The convention, by a vote of 563 to 311-3, voted that no state delegation should be bound by unit control except in such cases where a state law was mandatory on the subject.

Wilson supporters in the convention who, earlier in the evening, had carried on a demonstration lasting 33 minutes, regarded the vote as distinctly favorable. The Wilson boom had been growing throughout the day.

Gain of 18 for Wilson.

Wilson gained and Harmon lost 18 votes from the Ohio delegation as a result of the fight. It was said the abrogation of the rule might lead to breaks in other delegations and this left the presidential race tonight in greater doubt than ever.

New York's solid block of 30 votes was cast amid hisses and groans, in favor of continuing the unit rule. Cleveland's home state of Ohio, Cleveland split, 29 to 7, in favor of the unit rule.

The fight over the unit rule carried on during the evening session, well along toward midnight. The report from the committee on credentials then was received. As there was a minority report regarding discussion, an adjournment was decided on until noon tomorrow.

The report of the committee of the rules was presented at 8:32 p. m., providing that the nominations should precede the report of the resolutions committee. This rule report was adopted without dissent.

MAJESTIC ASKS TO SHOW FILMS SUNDAY

Colorado Springs will have motion picture shows on Sunday hereafter, if the mayor and city commissioners act in accordance with an application made yesterday morning's meeting of the city council by Frank Tammen, president and manager of the Majestic Amusement company.

Mr. Tammen said the matter of keeping the Majestic open on Sundays is purely for the mayor and the city commissioners, giving in detail his reasons for making the request that the city either change its ordinance concerning the Sunday closing of places of amusement, under which classification the Majestic comes, or else pass a new law which will permit him, as well as others similarly situated, to give motion picture exhibitions on Sunday as well as other days in the week.

The matter was referred to a committee of the whole, which means that the mayor and commissioners will talk it over in executive session before announcing in open council what action they propose to take.

A canvass of city officials by The Gazette last night brought out replies that indicated a reluctance to give any statement at this time concerning the matter. The officials said they have had no time to give the request sufficient consideration and that the question has not yet been taken up in a private meeting.

T. R. WILL FIGHT IT OUT TO END MAKES IT CLEAR HE IS IN STRUGGLE TO STAY

Receives Hundreds of Telegrams and Letters Urging Him to Go On

OYSTER BAY, N. Y., June 26.—The issue upon which Colonel Roosevelt is making his campaign for the presidency was indicated by him today. He made his appeal upon the "big issue" that he has termed the "big issue" and "the big issue" have determined to "go on" from public life because he "really fear" that they really fear, "accomplish this purpose, he believes they are willing to take up any man whom they think can win the presidency over him. Having defeated him at the Chicago convention, he says they hope to control the Democratic convention to this same end."

"They know me and I know them," he said. "It is anything to beat me. I am fighting a lone hand and I am going to fight it out to the end." The former president made this remark after a long conference with William A. Prendergast, controller of the city of New York. Mr. Prendergast came to Oyster Bay to induce Colonel Roosevelt to say definitely that under no circumstances would he withdraw from the fight.

"Has any suggestion been made," was asked of Mr. Prendergast, "that any man other than Colonel Roosevelt should lead the fight for the new party?"

Answers for Prendergast.

"I will answer that question for Mr. Prendergast," said the colonel. "In the statement which I made in Chicago on Monday I said I would stay in the fight until the end. Since then, I have received hundreds of letters and telegrams urging me to go on with it and not one of them suggested that I get out of it. In every case, my reply is just what I said in Chicago."

"The controller said the reason he was anxious to make clear that Colonel Roosevelt would make the fight was that the 'interests' which defeated him at Chicago would do anything in their power to keep him out of the White house and for that purpose would gladly accept any other progressive. In Chicago, he continued, some of the Taft leaders asked him to go to Colonel Roosevelt with the offer to give the nomination to Governor Hadley or any other man he might name. They had even offered, he said, to put the Roosevelt delegates from Texas and Washington back on the list if he would consent to this. Colonel Roosevelt corroborated this statement and added that the same interests were hard at work at the Baltimore convention and were willing to take up any of the Democratic progressives if they thought they could thus defeat him.

GOMEZ TURNING HIS MIND TO POLITICS

HAVANA, June 26.—The government expresses confidence that the insurrection is fast approaching collapse and is now considering the question of withdrawing a portion of the regular troops in the city of Havana. Colonel Rios, who returned from Oriente yesterday, reported 2,000 insurgents in arms. Other estimates place the rebel strength as high as 4,000.

A conference which President Gomez had last night with the Liberal leaders is taken as an indication that the president considers the insurrection now of secondary importance, and that it is time to turn attention to practical politics in preparation for an active presidential campaign. The question of a Liberal candidate, however, is still in abeyance, with no indications that General Gomez and Vice President Alfredo Zayas will arrive at any agreement.

General Montecarlo advises that the troops are now actively pursuing the rebels.

SANTIAGO, Cuba, June 26.—General Montecarlo is reported again to have changed his plan of campaign, this being necessary because of the elusive tactics of the insurgents. He has now ordered his forces to divide into small commands. They will operate at night, laying ambushes for wandering insurgent bands.

Colonel Machado, commanding at Guantanamo, reports the situation there much improved. He has taken measures to compel all vagrants to work for the purpose of supplying labor to the sugar mills, which are desirous of resuming grinding.

The sanitary department reports the situation at El Colorado dangerous on account of the spread of disease among the great number of destitute reconcentrados.

NELLIE BLY SENTENCED

NEW YORK, June 26.—Nellie Bly, in private life Mrs. Elizabeth C. Seaman, one time noted traveler and newspaper woman, and now owner of the bankrupt Tronard Manufacturing company of Brooklyn, was sentenced by United States Judge Mayer, in Brooklyn today, to a term of 30 days in jail and to pay a fine of $5,000. A stay was granted to July 1.

Mrs. Seaman was found guilty of contempt of court for not producing books in connection with a creditor's inquiry begun after a federal judge in Brooklyn declared the Tronard Manufacturing company bankrupt. Several months ago Mrs. Seaman was fined $500 for contempt.

GOVERNOR HARMON.
Candidate for the Democratic Presidential Nomination, Who Loses 18 Votes From the Ohio Delegation by the Convention Abrogating the Unit Rule.

COLUMBUS, O., June 26.—Governor Harmon had retired when the action of the Democratic convention in abrogating the unit rule was made known to him. He refused to comment on it until tomorrow when he will hear from his campaign managers in Baltimore.

What Clark's Sister-in-Law Says of Democratic Meeting

Mrs. Annie H. Pitzer of Colorado Springs, sister-in-law of Champ Clark and a delegate from the Second congressional district to the national Democratic convention now meeting at Baltimore, has given out her impressions of the big convention thus far, in the following article:

"The thing that impressed me most on Tuesday, the opening day of the convention, aside from the wonderful sight itself, was that the Democratic party is on good terms with itself. Confidence is on every face, and as an Oklahoma delegate expressed it in my hearing, 'the Democratic donkey has all the assurance of a winner.' This state of affairs is manifest everywhere. From the most noted to the humblest delegate the desire, nay, the might better say the determination, is expressed to stand together."

On every lip is the phrase, 'This is a Democratic year, and we are sure to win.' Strong and courageous, the Democracy stands, not afraid of the past, the present or the future."

"But, strong as is the faith of the Democracy in itself, there will be nothing left to chance; there is too much at stake for this, and never before in its history has there been a more determined resolution that wise counsel should prevail and trusted leaders be upheld. I may be pardoned for a little family pride in my distinguished brother-in-law if I say my heart is full over the Champ Clark feeling in this convention, the genuine belief and trust in him so many hold."

"The Champ Clark sentiment is ripe here. I saw it in the bronzed faces of sturdy westerners. I heard it in the drawing accents of his southern friends, calling him 'Champ' with picturesque fervor. In the middle western man, full of business and energy, who cried his praise, and in the recent and cultured easterner, who gave honestly enthusiastic while talking of the speaker."

An adherent of another candidate said to me:

"Of course, we want our man to win, but if we cannot get him, why we would take Champ Clark with thanks-givings."

"There is no win for one man or ruin for the party," said the good of the party upmost."

"And in this convention let me say here another thing that impressed me was the seriousness of the delegates. Enthusiasm and gaiety were everywhere in the beautiful armory hall. The handsome gowns and bright faces of women visitors made the galleries blossom like flower gardens, but down on the floor among the delegates, of which I had the good fortune to be one, the dominant note was that of a righteous army going forth to fight the battle of the Lord."

I felt mighty proud to represent the women of America at this sister-delegate's first time in a Democratic national convention. I know it made a great step forward for woman suffrage."

I felt behind us the millions of great American women who want the vote because they need it to help in the common good of our country."

"The wave of interest that swept over the convention as we women took our seats, told me that the delegates and sisters realized it was an epoch in the history of womanhood. We were most heartily welcomed by the men delegates and officials, and I am sure the convention days will be red-letter days in our lives."

"As I sat in my seat and looked on no longer merely a spectator, I realized that this marked the entry of woman as a principal in public life. Before she had been merely the singer in the wings, now she was to take a part role. The words the poet Tennyson wrote came into my mind, words of poetic insight and true wisdom."

"Wherever I went, I found two kinds in crowd, two beside the two in the United States office. Two in the United States office, two in the liberal offices of life."

PRESIDENTIAL NOMINATION DUE TODAY

Situation in Respect to Candidate as Complex and Uncertain as Ever

WILSON MEN CLAIM GAINS

Dark Horses Chief Subject Discussion With Kern Looming Big

BALTIMORE, June 26.—With nominations due to be made tomorrow, the situation in the Democratic national convention with respect to a presidential candidate was as complex and uncertain tonight as at any time since the delegates began to pour into Baltimore.

There was much talk of a subsidence in the Champ Clark wave, which reached its crest last night, but the speaker's campaign managers were not willing to admit that there had been any wavering in their forces. At the same time they went to the convention hall with the expressed purpose of forcing the issue at the earliest possible opportunity. The opposition forces, hearing of this plan, prepared to block it. They did not wish the nominations to be made until tomorrow, hoping the situation might clear a little by that time.

The adherents of Woodrow Wilson claimed tonight their candidate had made distinct gains during the day. They asserted, without giving details, that some of the Clark sentiment was turning toward the New Jersey governor, and were in a more hopeful mood than at any time during the convention period.

"Dark Horses" Discussed.

"Dark Horses" were being discussed everywhere by the leaders and delegates tonight, but there appeared to be some difficulty in crystallizing sentiment as to which one of the dark horses was darkest. Senator John W. Kern of Indiana, Mr. Bryan's choice for temporary chairman of the convention, and chairman of the committee drawing the party platform, still appeared to hold the lead among the dark horses. The coalition of the Bryan and Wilson forces in the first fight of the convention, however, led to talk of the Bryan strength ultimately going to Wilson.

The one outstanding fact in the situation seemed to be the absolute impossibility of any candidate having a sufficient number of votes on the first ballot to nominate. The two-thirds rule prevailing in Democratic conventions always makes the picking of a candidate in advance a difficult problem.

Predictions Vary.

After the first ballot is taken, it remains to be seen how well the Clark managers can hold their footing. Some of the delegates predicted for tonight that the voting would run through a large number of ballots, while others predicted a quick selection.

Friends of Mr. Bryan practically ceased to boom him as a presidential candidate today, though they were reported to take advantage of any psychological moment that might happen along. Mr. Bryan's followers warmly defend the course he has pursued in the convention, and declare he still is in a position to dictate the nominee. Mr. Bryan today declined to accept the chairmanship of the platform committee, but his close friend, Senator Kern, was chosen in his place. Tonight Mr. Bryan resigned the platform as "coming along nicely."

It was said the platform would be ready for the convention by the time (Continued on Page Two)

GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS ARE VIOLATING THE LAW

Queer Situation Due to Failure of Congress to Provide Funds—President Will Act Today.

WASHINGTON, June 26.—President Taft will send a message to congress, probably tomorrow, pointing out the anomalous situation whereby the machinery of the federal government must continue in operation in direct violation of law, making officials liable to fine and imprisonment unless steps are immediately taken to provide funds for the next fiscal year, beginning July 1.

The president will appeal for the passage of a resolution extending the necessary appropriations of the current fiscal year for a temporary period to tide over the emergency caused by the failure of the regular and deficiency appropriation bills to be enacted into law. It is expected that such a resolution will be introduced and passed by both houses tomorrow. It is unlawful for any official to create a deficiency or accept the services of anyone gratuitously. Neither an expenditure, it is said, nor a violation of the law forbidding the creation of deficiency.

SEVERAL WILSON MEN LOSE SEATS CREDENTIAL COMMITTEE SPRINGS SURPRISE

Contested Delegate Cases From Dakota and D. of C. Given to Clark

BALTIMORE, June 26.—Completing its work shortly after the national convention reassembled tonight, the credential committee agreed to endorse the findings of the Democratic national committee in all contested delegate cases except those from South Dakota and the District of Columbia. In both these cases the Clark forces succeeded in setting their instructed delegates.

Two minority reports were decided upon. In the Illinois contest, where Roger C. Sullivan delegates were seated, 40 to 10, Harry T. Crosswell, the California member, reserved the right to present a minority report in favor of the Carter H. Harrison faction. In the South Dakota contest, where the findings of the national committee were reversed, 28 to 23, P. H. Martin of Wisconsin asked all of those voting for the losing Wilson delegates to join him in a report that would carry the fight to the floor of the convention.

Clark Delegates Seated.

In the three-cornered District of Columbia contest the instructed delegation headed by National Committeeman Newman, which had been recognized by the national committee, was unseated, and the "Castella" delegation, instructed for Clark, was installed. A vote on the three delegations resulted as follows:

For Castella delegation, 22; for Newman delegation, 12; for Clark delegation, 3. This afternoon the committee overturned the action of the national committee, and gave their 10 seats from South Dakota to Clark delegates, in the first actual test of strength between the Wilson and anti-Wilson forces.

By a vote of 28 to 23, the committee unseated the 10 Wilson delegates, who had received the highest vote in the state primaries June 4, and gave the seats to the Clark delegation headed by Andrew E. Lee. This was one of two delegations that had run under a Clark banner, their combined vote exceeding that of the Wilson ticket.

Surprise to Wilson Forces.

The overthrow of the Wilson delegates who had been seated by the national committee came as a surprise to the Wilson forces. It was the first case in which the national committee was reversed, and the close vote, 28 to 23, gave the Clark forces but little to spare in their fight.

Ex-Senator Patterson, an active figure in the Clark national campaign, aided in presenting the claims of the Clark contestants, and was attacked by the Wilson delegates. The South Dakota case presented three conflicting tickets, one headed "Wilson-Bryan, Progressive Democracy," another "Wilson-Clark-Bryan Democracy," and a third "Clark for President."

The second delegation was the one seated. The Clark forces claimed the third ticket had been filed to divide their vote, but this was denied. The delegates are for Clark and it was claimed that while they received about the total vote cast for both Clark tickets, they exceeded that cast for the single Wilson ticket. The Clark delegates, who were seated held certificates issued under the law by the Democratic state chairman, while the Wilson delegates had been awarded later certificates by the state canvassing board.

P. H. Martin, the Wisconsin member of the credentials committee, proposed that the Wilson delegates be retained on the permanent roll of the convention. As a substitute, Jerry C. South of Arkansas moved the seating of the Clark delegates, and his motion prevailed.

BOTH SIDES IN DARROW CASE ASK FOR A REST

LOS ANGELES, June 26.—John Harrington of Chicago left the witness stand in the bribery trial of Clarence S. Darrow today after having been under examination for seven days. At the conclusion of the ordeal counsel for both sides asked for an adjournment before beginning Harrington's redirect examination.

Nearly the entire day was devoted to interrogations concerning the conversations between Harrington and Darrow which had been planned, as the witness testified, so that they could be reported verbally by a telephonic device. Harrington was pressed constantly to recall what had been said by himself and Darrow at these conversations.

The defense, again failing to force production of the stenographic transcript of these talks, was heartened somewhat by information from Judge Hutton that, unless the prosecution insured the transcript, he might allow the defense to put on the stand the stenographer who transcribed it.

Harrington admitted that he had had financial difficulties with Darrow and that the latter still owed him the difference between $5,500, which sum he had received while employed by the McNamara defense, and $13,000 which the witness said was promised each of the associate counsel in the McNamara defense. The sum just now was being demanded on $5,000, which he had never received.

CONVENTION IN UPROAR FOR WILSON

Galleries Empty On To Main Floor and Near-Riot Is the Result

HALF-HOUR DEMONSTRATION

Delegates Cheer and Sing for Long Time in Effort to Stampede Meeting

CONVENTION HALL, Baltimore, June 26. At 9:45 the Wilson demonstration which began during the discussion of the minority report rules committee, was still on. Confusion prevailed. At 10:00 the convention began to restore order, and the demonstration began to subside. It lasted half an hour.

During the Wilson demonstration in the hall the Wilson camp of Princeton University students, who were rounding the Army.

Started at Mention of Name.

John W. Peck of Ohio was speaking in behalf of the minority rules report and referred to Governor Wilson. Mention of the name started the demonstration. The New Jersey delegation began the outcry. A dozen pictures of Wilson appeared and were scattered through the hall. Senator John Sharp Williams of Mississippi, who was on the platform, swung his hat above his head as he led cheers for Wilson. A big white Texas banner inscribed "Forty for Wilson," with a Wilson lithograph attached, appeared and an attempt was made to start a parade through the aisles. It did not materialize.

From the galleries a shower of Wilson lithographs fell upon the delegates. Galleries and floor joined in the cheering, delegates and spectators climbing upon chairs. In the center of the hall, however, the big block of New York delegates sat calm and unmoved.

An enormous orange and black banner over 30 feet long inscribed "Staminate Wilson's Birthplace," was carried through the galleries.

A black and white banner inscribed "Give Us Wilson and We'll Give You Pennsylvania," appeared over the Pennsylvania delegation and started another cheer.

Stop Cheering to Sing.

"Let the band play," shouted an excited New Jersey delegate, dashing to the front of the platform. The band did play and the cheering increased for a time. Finally the band swung into the "Star-Spangled Banner" and out of the rear emerged a murmur of music of the delegates stopped cheering to sing. But when the song was over the shouting resumed and the band played "Maryland, My Maryland," bringing the Baltimoreans and the galleries to their feet with cheers. The underwood people tried to appropriate part of the demonstration. They distributed lithographs of Underwood and raised a huge banner with the inscription, "What is the issue? The tariff. What is the answer? Underwood."

"Dixie," from the band, added volume to the uproar. A Jersey delegate worked feverishly but in vain to turn from its iron clamps the Jersey standard.

CARNIVAL COLORS YELLOW AND WHITE

COLORADO SPRINGS will be a flitter of yellow and white again next August during the summer carnival, just as it was last year. The executive committee of the carnival has decided that the colors shall again be yellow and white, as they were last year.

The decision was made early, so that the merchants and others may have ample opportunity to get in supplies of bunting and banners. Denver, and other outside towns that sell bunting and decorations have been writing letters to learn the committee's decision in the matter.

The yellow and white make a most attractive carnival combination, as they are "summery" and lend themselves to attractive decoration schemes. A very delicate shade of yellow was used last year, and a good many people have quantities of it on hand.

A representative of a Denver decorating house arrived in the city yesterday to look up the matter of contractors for decorating the big new house. It is the hope of the committee that the most elaborate decorations will be hung this year that the city has ever had for a fête of this kind. This morning the various divisions of the carnival finance committee will begin their solicitation for subscriptions. There already has been a most generous response to the call for donations. The committee has subdivided the business section, working in pairs, and hopes to be able to visit everyone in the next few days. There is a most kindly feeling toward the carnival on the part of the business men, and the committee does not apprehend many difficulties.

PRESIDENTIAL NOMINATION

the nomination for president had been made.

At Mr. Bryan's suggestion it had been determined not to present a platform until after the candidate had been chosen.

Bryan Was Getting Lineup.

In Mr. Bryan's behalf it was said tonight that this fight on Judge Parker for the temporary chairmanship was influenced largely by a desire to get a line on the different delegations. The Nebraska had not had an opportunity to make a pull, and it was said the chairmanship fight was his only means of learning at the outset just what was to be met and dealt with.

It was generally reported about the convention hall tonight that a number of the Western Clark delegations who cast their votes for Judge Parker for temporary chairman were beginning to "hear from home" on account of alleged desertion of the progressive cause. It also was common gossip that there was a good deal of feeling between the Bryan and Clark forces.

In the committee on credentials, today, the Clark forces clearly controlled the sitting delegates from South Dakota, pledged to Wilson, were unseated in favor of the Clark contestants, while unaffiliated delegates from the District of Columbia were unseated in favor of six instructed for Clark.

Two Sessions Yesterday.

There were two sessions of the convention today. The one beginning at noon was devoted, almost entirely to matters. Tonight the convention, at a session beginning at 8 p. m., began consideration of committee reports, and the work of completing permanent organization.

In all of the party councils, today, harmony was urged upon the various factions. In a further effort to placate the Bryan interests there was practically a unanimous decision to make Senator-elect Ollie M. James of Kentucky permanent chairman.

Some of Governor Woodrow Wilson's supporters were claiming, tonight, that sentiment in the big New York delegation was turning toward their candidate.

It was everywhere agreed that the nominee would be an out-and-out progressive.

The growth of Wilson sentiment found expression in the convention tonight in a prolonged demonstration when his name was mentioned.

CONVENTION IN UPROAR

ard. The volume of sound grew steady. From the galleries the bearers of the big "Stagnum" banner came down to the floor. They hurried to the press stand and endeavored to scale the platform. One of the bearers gained the press stand, tramping over the telegraph keys and heads of writers, but was seized by a newspaper man and thrown back into the crowd.

Sergeants at Arms Powerless.

A struggle followed and for a time a serious disturbance was threatened. The delegates again attacked the stand and were again repulsed. The uproar on the floor and the galleries grew to pandemonium. A crowd jammed the space before the stand as the first banner-bearer thrown from the press stand, tried to return to the attack. The police and the sergeants-at-arms were powerless against the crowd.

A squad in the galleries began the monotonous chant of "We Want Wilson" but it was lost in the general uproar. In vain Chairman Parker pounded his desk in an effort to quiet the crowd. The demonstration had been under way more than 25 minutes before even a semblance of order was restored. It required much pounding of gavel after this before the proceedings could be resumed.

Officially the demonstration was recorded as having lasted 25 minutes.

Chairman Parker warned the delegates during future demonstrations against climbing into the press sections. He also warned the spectators against disorders.

When the delegates take their seats, it's time for you to sit down, he shouted at the galleries.

UNIT RULE

Maryland, the chairman, provided for the nominations for president and vice president immediately after the report of the committee on credentials, and before the adoption of the platform. It was adopted viva voce.

Mr. Covington then presented a majority supplemental report of the rules committee, making the "unit rule" a rule of the convention. It would make a unit instruction by a state convention binding on a delegation if a majority of the delegates favored a minority report which would exempt from the operations of this rule such delegations as are elected under state primary rules by congressional districts. Several participated in the debate.

The delegates grew restless toward 11 p. m., and the vote was taken. It was on the substitution of minority or pro-Wilson report for the majority report.

A chorus of hisses and "hoos" greeted the announcement of Senator Stone of Missouri, Champ Clark's state, cast 23 votes against the minority report, which would favor the Wilson forces. Seven Missouri delegates voted aye.

A round of cheers swept the hall as Bryan's home state, Nebraska, voted solid 38 ayes for the Wilson report.

An uproar swept the hall as the clerk called "New York."

Delegates rose in their places and watched Charles F. Murphy as he rose to make the announcement.

"New York votes 90 no," he said, and there was a chorus of jeers, hisses and cheers.

DESTROYS BAD CREAM

DENVER, June 26.—Dr. L. J. Weldon, chief milk inspector for the city, has decided that the only way to prevent the importation of dirty, soured cream into Denver, is to pour it down city manholes. He took this course yesterday with 20 gallons of cream belonging to the Littleton Creamery company.

Dr. Weldon had warned the company that the cream it was shipping in from Kansas was unsanitary. Yesterday Dr. Weldon went to the depot, took two cans of cream and sent word to the creamery company that he had confiscated them. H. H. Owens, foreman of the creamery, arrived at the depot just in time to see Dr. Weldon emptying the cream down a manhole.

Owens has threatened to sue the city for $22 worth of cream, on the grounds that it interfered with interstate commerce. Dr. Weldon says he will welcome a test suit.

RESOLUTIONS COMMITTEE IS WASTING NO TIME IN DRAWING UP PLATFORM

BALTIMORE, June 26.—Sitting in a commodious room in the Annapolis in which the Democratic convention is holding its meetings, a large part of which was occupied by stacks of rifles with "glistening bayonets" attached, the committee on resolutions, today began preparing a platform for the consideration of the convention. With the approach of night the committee turned over to a subcommittee of 11 the detailed work of preparing the document.

In addition to voting to recommend that the platform should not be presented to the committee until after the nomination of a presidential candidate, the committee began a series of hearings of ideas for platform declarations. In addition, other planks were sent in and in some instances entire platforms were presented. Among the latter was a complete form draft coming from the New York delegation and another by Senator Newlands of Nevada.

Lively Tilt Between Members.

Other features of the hearings included a lively tilt between Senator Culberson of Texas and Congressman W. G. Brantley of Georgia. Mr. Brantley is a member of the national employers' liability commission and he took sharp issue with some of the Texan's reference to workmen's compensation bills prepared by that commission.

The New York platform received very careful consideration. It gives first place to the tariff, declaring it to be a fundamental principle of the Democratic party that the federal government has "no right or power to collect tariff duties except for purposes of revenue." There is a demand that the collection of tariff taxes shall be limited to the necessities of government when honestly and economically administered.

There is a declaration for immediate revision especially as to the necessities of life. President Taft's course in vetoing the woolen, cotton, chemical and the farmers free list bills of the last session of congress is roundly denounced.

Enforcement Antitrust Laws.

Rigid enforcement of the antitrust laws is promised and such additions as may be necessary to make the laws effective are promised.

While opposing the establishment of a central bank, the opinion is expressed that there should be legislation under Democratic auspices looking to the creation of a flexible banking law which would prevent any small group of financiers and politicians from controlling the banks of the country.

Declaration is made for an income tax through constitutional amendment for the election of senators by direct vote of the people and for a single six-year term for president.

The work of the present Democratic house of representatives is highly commended.

Promise is made to maintain the Monroe doctrine and to protect American citizens at home and abroad.

Other Recommendations.

Extension of the parcels post.
Encouragement of the merchant marine but without subsidy.
Federal aid for good roads.
Improvement of inland waterways.
Reformation of the civil service.
Workmen's compensation legislation.
Improvement of the pure food laws.
Conservation of natural resources.
Reduction of governmental expenditures.

Mr. Newlands' draft favored the abolition of nearly all the gradual reduction of the tariff and the appropriation of $50,000,000 annually for river improvement.

The encounter between Senator Culberson and Congressman Brantley took place in connection with an argument by Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, in the interest of a labor plank. He spoke for a workmen's compensation bill, when Mr. Culberson raised the question as to federal jurisdiction in compensation cases. The Texas senator and the Georgia congressman had opposing views as to the provisions of the bill, until at last the Texan exclaimed with marked emphasis:

"The gentleman from Georgia is entirely right," responded Mr. Brantley, who had aided in preparing the bill.

What Gompers Requests.

Mr. Gompers asked for the reaffirmation of the Denver platform on questions affecting labor, dwelling especially on the question of injunction.

Mr. Gompers said that while originally a Republican, he had not acted with that party in recent years.

"They didn't play fair with the masses and I could not play with them," he said.

"You got what you wanted at Denver, didn't you?" asked Mr. Bryan.

"We did," replied Mr. Gompers, "and we gave you from 80 to 85 per cent of the labor vote."

James A. Emery, representing the manufacturers, opposed the concessions asked by Mr. Gompers. He said his organization was nonpartisan.

Speaking for the American Stock Growers' association, Representative A. T. Wacker of Colorado, a Democrat, attacked the resolutions condemning the stockmen and farmers who were in opposition to it. He also contended for an adequate duty on sugar and declared that never had there been such a misnomer as the farmers' free list bill of the last session of congress.

Taylor Condemns Fisher.

In the interest of the retention of our own homesteaders in the United States, Congressman Taylor of Colorado urged the abolition of the present conservation policy, especially condemning the attitude of Secretary Fisher of the interior department. He declared that the extensive reservations of the west are maintained "for federal jobs and federal revenue" and said:

"If the Democratic party would take more interest in this question so vital to the west, it would get more congressmen from that section."

Congressman Grover of Texas, ranking Democratic member of the house committee on naval affairs, argued against the building of any more battleships this year and asked that the Democratic caucus of the house be sustained on that point.

CANADIAN TO ENGLAND TO DISCUSS NAVAL PLANS

OTTAWA, Ont., June 28.—The departure for England today of Premier Borden and three members of his cabinet was regarded here as marking an important step in the development of the British navy. The principal errand of the Canadian envoys is to consult with the British government as to Canada's naval policy.

The new government has abandoned the idea of a Canadian navy, as desired by the Laurier ministry and wishes to adopt an alternative. It is the form that this should take that will be the subject of negotiations with the admiralty. In place of a local navy, it is understood that the Borden government will propose a direct contribution, either of cash sufficient to build two or three battleships, or the vessels themselves. Canada would be represented on a board directing their operations.

The outcome of the conference will be awaited with great interest in the Dominion, and as the government has promised that its naval proposal shall be submitted to the people, the opinion widely obtains that after another session parliament may be dissolved. In the new election the naval policy would be the paramount issue.

MOB SPOILS WEDDING OF CHINESE AND WHITE

CHICAGO, June 26.—Bricks and cobblestones pelted against the home of Tom Moy, a Chinese, brought to an abrupt close a wedding feast, being celebrated in honor of Wo Sung, a laundryman, and Josephine Carlson, 17 years old, a white nurse.

While many friends of the Chinese and his bride were making the night gay in Moy's dining room, a mob of 500 men and boys surrounded the place and hurled missiles until every window in the house was shattered.

The guests made Wo's laundry beneath the home of the host a place of refuge until the arrival of police in response to a riot call. The mob was dispersed, but no arrests were made and no one was injured.

A Splendid Tonic
Corra, Ky. Mrs. Iva Moore, of this place, says, "I was so weak, I could hardly walk. Fainted, Cardui, and was greatly relieved. It is a splendid tonic. I have recommended Cardui to many friends, who tried it with good results. Testimony like this comes unsolicited, from thousands of earnest women, who have been benefited by the timely use of that successful tonic medicine, Cardui. Purely vegetable, mild, but reliable, Cardui well merits its high place in the esteem of those who have tried it. It relieves women's pains, and strengthens weak women. It is certainly worth a trial. Your druggist sells Cardui."

Colorado's Acreage of Cultivated Area Is Increasing Rapidly

DENVER, June 26.—Conclusive evidence of the superiority of the agricultural lands of Colorado over those of almost every other state in the Union is given in the agricultural bulletin of the census bureau for the thirtieth census, made public yesterday.

The report contains general information showing the growth and development in agriculture of each state in the decade between 1899 and 1909. The figures show that Colorado's acreage of cultivated area has increased more rapidly than that of any other state with the exception of small sections in the Rocky mountain district. But the greatest increase has been in the yield per acre, as is shown by a comparison of the percentage of increase in acreage, as compared with the percentage of increase in production.

The percentage of increase in acreage cultivated in cereals of all kinds in the decade was 101.4. The percentage of increase in the production of all cereals during the period was 214.5, showing that the yield per acre increased much more rapidly than the acreage.

In the production of corn during the same period, the increase in acreage was 283 per cent, and the increase in yield was 425.8 per cent. The same general relations between increase in acreage and increase in total production holds good for other crops.

The acreage of all cereals cultivated in Colorado in 1909 was 1,557,955, as compared with 525,239 for 1899. The Rocky mountain district, all tributary to Denver markets, showed by far the largest increase in acreage of cultivated agricultural lands. The same section also showed a fully 30 times as great a percentage of increase in production as any other geographical section of the country.

The increase in the acreage of hay and forage produced was 35 per cent, and the increase in yield was but 36.4. The increase in value of crops was 114.8 per cent, due to the enormous advance in the value of hay in the past few years. The acreage cultivated in hay and forage crops in the state is larger than for any other crop, being 1,549,000 acres.

The record for the production of potatoes is one of the best shown by the report. While most of the potato-growing sections are showing decreases in the yield per acre, Colorado showed a most promising increase, proving that Colorado's soil is increasing in productivity, while that in other sections of the state is becoming less productive from year to year. The increase in acreage of potatoes cultivated was 94.8 per cent, while the increase in yield was 163.5 per cent.

Lehman's Resignation As Solicitor General Handed to President

WASHINGTON, June 26.—Frederick W. Lehman, solicitor general of the United States, has placed his resignation in the hands of President Taft. It is not known that the resignation has been formally accepted, but it is known that his successor has practically been chosen.

Mr. Lehman is a Democrat; he has been prominently mentioned for a place on the supreme court bench and has been regarded by many as a possible candidate for attorney general if a Democratic administration should come into power. It is known that Mr. Lehman resigned against the vigorous protest of Attorney General Wickersham, who was insistent that the solicitor should retain his office at least until next spring, but Mr. Lehman could not be persuaded.

His plans are not known, though some of his friends believe he may become active in politics in the coming campaign.

"Today Mr. Lehman absolutely refused to discuss his resignation," the probably will return to his home in St. Louis, where he was practicing law when President Taft appointed him to succeed the late Lloyd M. Bowers.

Mr. Lehman completed the corporation tax case successfully in the supreme court after Mr. Bowers' death and bore a large part of the preliminary work in the preparation of the government's suit against the steel corporation. He prepared the opinion upon which the National City company of New York produced a giant holding company of banks, decided to change its plans to meet the approval of the government.

William Marshall Bullitt of Louisville, Ky., is said to be under consideration by President Taft as a successor to Mr. Lehman. Some officials here regard it as settled that the place has been offered to Mr. Bullitt and that he has accepted. It has not been decided when Mr. Lehman's resignation is to become effective.

BAITMORE, June 26.—A movement to test sentiment for Senator John Kern of Indiana, for the presidential nomination has been started by some progressives who feel it may be impossible to unite two-thirds of the delegates for either Eugene C. THAW AND JEROME IN LIVELY TILT

WHITE PLAINS, N. Y., June 26.—Harry K. Thaw and William Travers Jerome had an all day debate at today's hearing on Thaw's application for release from the Matteawan insane asylum, their frequent verbal passages at arms keeping the interest of a big crowd of court room auditors at a high pitch.

Thaw, while not losing his temper at any stage, flung back some caustic replies to leading questions of the attorney who was fighting for Thaw's release, through what was termed a "mental examination."

The witness, repeatedly questioned Jerome's motives in appearing as the leading inquirer in opposition to Thaw's release.

Mrs. Evelyn Thaw sat in the court room all day listening to her husband's testimony, her gaze riveted on his face.

CINCINNATI, June 26.—Judge Hollister in the United States district court here today overruled a demurrer to the indictments filed by attorneys for the 30 officers and employees of the National Cash Register company of Dayton, O., who, it is alleged, engaged in a conspiracy in restraint of trade in violation of the Sherman antitrust law.

This action means that President Patterson and the other indicted officials of the National Cash Register company must stand trial in the federal courts for the alleged violation of the criminal section of the Sherman antitrust act.

"The nominee of this convention will be the next president of the United States," said Folk. He eulogized Bryan at length. The delegates grew restless in the course of Folk's speech, and Chairman Parker was forced to admonish them to be quiet. Folk's speech was very brief.

J. C. CLOES HAD LOST ALL HOPE OF HIS RECOVERY

New Tonic Proves Trouble to Have Been Nervous Debility.

FEW REALIZE THEIR CONDITION

My Ambition Has Returned as Well as My Strength and Energy.

Among the hundreds of statements being made in connection with the remarkable new tonic, "Tona Vita," none are more interesting than that given out recently by J. C. Cloes, Theatrical Manager of the Princess Theater, this city. Mr. Cloes says:

"For some time I have been in a general run-down condition, suffering from indigestion and nervousness. I had poor circulation of blood, suffering with cold feet and hands. My body seemed benumbed at times and I could not sleep at night. My bowels would not perform their proper functions, and I was continually constipated. I tried various medicines without relief and finally lost hope."

"I heard of the new tonic, 'Tona Vita,' and decided to give it a trial. I have only taken one bottle of the medicine and feel like I have a new lease on life. My ambition has returned, as well as my strength and energy. I now sleep well at night and get up in the morning feeling cheerful and ready for work. I think it is one of the best remedies I have ever used for a general run-down condition, and highly recommend it to anyone in this condition."

People who are nervous and irritable, have imperfect digestion and stomach disorder, lack energy and ambition, feel melancholy and depressed, suffer with headaches, backaches, poor memory, unsound sleep, irregular circulation, pallid complexion, and who are susceptible to coughs and colds, are unquestionably suffering with that modern plague, nervous debility, says the specialist.

There are thousands of such half-sick men and women in Colorado Springs who really do not know just what is wrong with them," said one of these specialists recently.

"They struggle aimlessly along until they become totally debilitated, and oftentimes they come to us suffering with this dreaded condition in its most aggravated form," continued he.

"We have a preparation that will positively remove this trouble and restore the organs of the body to their healthy, normal condition."

The "Tona Vita" specialists will be at the Robinson Drug Company from 9 a. m. to 8 p. m. during their stay in Colorado Springs.

"Our preparation acts like a true specific in all cases of debility, repairing all organic weakness, whether man or woman and proving a lasting source of benefit and relief. When buoyant spirits return and depression gives away to cheerfulness, it is hard to recognize some of the former sufferers."

REFUSES CHAIRMANSHIP RESOLUTIONS COMMITTEE

Bryan Twice Declines to Accept Because Not in Sympathy With Forces in Control—Kern Elected

BAITMORE, June 26.—Because he is not in sympathy with the forces seemingly in control of the Baltimore convention, W. J. Bryan of Nebraska today declined to accept the chairmanship of the resolutions committee unanimously tendered him. Senator John W. Kern was elected after Mr. Bryan twice refused the honor.

When the committee met, Mr. Bryan was not present, and his absence was disconcerting. No one appeared to know what the Nebraskaan's attitude was to be, but it was decided unanimously that the place should be offered him. Senators Rayner of Maryland, O'Gorman of New York and Cullerton of Texas therefore were sent most haste to Mr. Bryan's rooms to urge him to assume "a duty to his party." They arrived too late, as Mr. Bryan had started to the convention hall.

Mr. Bryan refused the chairmanship in a speech, in which he said he was not in sympathy with the forces who appeared to be directing the trend of political events in the party, and he was not sure he could support the platform to be presented by the committee.

Talks of Minority Report.

He said that unless the platform embraced the ideas of true progress, he would submit a minority report. Not content to abandon their harmony program without further effort, the committee turned the matter over to Senators Rayner, O'Gorman and Cullerton, who held an earnest discussion with Mr. Bryan in a corner of the room. Mr. Bryan said his position was unalterable.

Senator Kern was turned to as representing the Progressive Democracy, and there was no nomination in opposition to him. His election was unanimous.

Mr. Bryan made a motion that the presentation of a platform be deferred until after nominations by the convention, which was carried 4 to 2. The committee will recommend this action to the convention and adjourn until the convention should determine the matter.

"Name Your Man First."

"We don't want and must not have a perpetual debate between the candidate and the platform," said Mr. Bryan in advocacy of the motion postponing action on the platform until after the nomination of the presidential candidate, "and," he continued, "the only way to prevent such a result is to name your man first. Indeed, in these days the man is the platform."

The candidate, he argued, "should have an opportunity to talk about the platform in advance of its making, rather than to feel impelled to talk about it afterwards."

Senator Clark opposed the change as a reversal of all precedents, but was antagonized by Senator Rayner of Maryland, who, taking sides emphatically with Mr. Bryan, said the time had come for overthrowing undesirable precedents.

By a vote of 22 to 16 the resolutions committee of the convention today agreed to the plan to defer the presentation of the platform until after the party's candidate for president had been nominated.

In the absence of any true indication as to whether the conservative or the progressive wings of the party would dominate the convention it was considered good policy to hold back the platform in order to have it drawn up as to be acceptable to the convention.

In refusing to accept the chairmanship, Mr. Bryan said:

Officers Should Be in Harmony.

"I appreciate the compliment but I am not willing to accept as chairman. I am a believer in harmony, but I think that the committee and its officers ought to be in harmony with the convention and I am not in harmony with the organization of the convention or of the national committee which controls the organization of the convention."

"We used to have two kinds of Democratic, progressive and conservative; we now have only one kind, progressive, but we find there is a wide difference in the definition of the word progressive, and I don't define progressive as it is defined by a majority of this convention, and believing in harmony, I want to be in harmony with the convention, and I desire to be more free to represent the minority sentiment."

"I don't say that there will be a minority report but it would not look well for the chairman of the committee to take in a minority report. It may be necessary for me to take in a minority report. I don't know that it is but I don't want to place myself in that awkward position and for that reason I decline."

The following were appointed a sub-committee of the resolutions committee to draft the platform:

John W. Kern, ex-officio chairman; C. C. Culbertson, W. J. Bryan, James O'Gorman, Senator Rayner, A. M. Dockery, L. J. Walsh, Atlas Pomeroy, Thomas S. Martin, S. W. Belford, R. T. Broussard, George W. Putnam.

CLARK AND UNDERWOOD WATCH THE CONVENTION

WASHINGTON, June 26.—Speaker Clark and Representative Oscar Underwood spent the day in their offices in the Capitol receiving news from Baltimore. Both candidates were in touch with their managers by telephone but declined to talk of developments in the convention. While the speakers and Mr. Underwood are strong personal friends and have been political allies for many years, presidential talk is avoided when they meet in the corridors. It is "Hello, Champ," and "Hello, Oscar," and that's the end of it.

Woodson was then chosen associate secretary. Mr. Britton is a newspaper editor at Raleigh, N. C.

The candidates of the favorite sons for permanent chairman were withdrawn in speeches the keynote of which was harmony, and Mr. James was named.

Theodore Bell of California, proposed as chairman, appeared personally before the committee and declared that he desired no office but would support the chosen man in any position tendered to him for harmony.

WILSON EXPECTS SUCCESS
SEAGIRT, N. J., June 26.—The outlook at Baltimore is excellent. Governor Wilson said this afternoon after conferring by telephone with his campaign managers there:

"Have you heard the report at Baltimore that to insure harmony you have agreed to accept second place on the ticket?"

All that I care to say about that is that the governor has said that it is his duty to support the man who is elected to the office.

T. AOKI DIES IN SAN DIEGO

Japanese Artist, Well Known in This City, Succumbs to Long Illness. Had Visited Here Frequently

T. Aoki, a Japanese artist who has spent the last five summers at the Antlers hotel in this city, is dead in San Diego. A telegram was received yesterday noon by the hotel management, from Tora Aoki, daughter of the artist, stating that her father passed away yesterday morning in that city. The cause of his death was not given, but only recently the artist wrote to Manager Dunning that on account of ill health he would not come to Colorado Springs this year. He was about 65 years of age.

The paintings of Aoki adorn many of the finest homes in the city, and he was widely known in Colorado Springs, due to his extended visits here. His daughter, who usually accompanied him, was well acquainted in local social circles. Aoki was a man of considerable wealth, and owned a beautiful home in Pasadena.

BARTON EXPECTED SOON

Stratton Home Architect Improving. Denver Paper Prints Article Attacking the Trustees

George Edward Barton, architect of the Myron Stratton home to be erected near Broadmoor, is expected to return from Boston to Colorado Springs in the near future, according to advices received from him yesterday. He has been ill for several weeks, but his condition is improving.

His plans for the Stratton home are not yet completed, but the work will be prosecuted as rapidly as possible when he gets back to his offices here. A sensational story in a Denver evening paper yesterday, in which the publication addresses the attorney general and declares "the people of Colorado and looking to you to see that this great amount of money is used to carry out the will of Mr. Stratton," and that he "take the estate out of their (the trustees') hands and build the home," is regarded as a political play by those who are intimately identified with the Myron Stratton home. One of the home trustees pointed out that the illness of the architect has delayed the work materially, and that other obstacles which the public either does not know or fails to appreciate, have played a big part in withholding the beginning of actual construction of the home.

The tremendous litigation, involving more than $2,000,000, in which the estate was engaged ever since W. S. Stratton's death nearly 10 years ago, has delayed definite steps toward the construction of the home. Nearly all the litigation has been settled in favor of the estate, and the trustees are now to the highest court, and only a few thousand dollars are involved.

GETS SELF IN TROUBLE BY TESTIFYING FOR ANOTHER

Ernest Jones, son of a prominent banker and stockman of Childrens, Tex., is in the city jail here on a charge of issuing three worthless checks, amounting to about $35. He is also wanted in Pueblo on the same charge.

Jones' arrest, yesterday morning, came about in a rather peculiar manner, when he appeared in police court as a witness for Joe Bernstein, charged with running his automobile into a bicycle ridden by Carl Johnson, 15 years old, Tuesday night. The Bernstein case was continued until tomorrow, and Jones was leaving the city jail when a detective stopped him in the corridor. The detective remembered a description of Jones, sent here from Pueblo, and the young man fitted the description. The rest was easy for the detective. He asked Jones his name, and was told that it was Smith. "Where was he from?"

"Why, from Mexico, Tex."

"Had he been in Pueblo within the last few days?"

"Yes."

At this point, Bernstein, who had been given a check by Jones for an auto ride, Tuesday night, wanted to know why so many questions were being asked by the detective, and, in the next moment, it was brought out that Bernstein also had a check signed, Ernest Jones.

The detectives have learned, it is said, that the young man has no money on deposit in the childrens bank, on which his checks were drawn, and he is being held pending further investigation of the case. His father has been notified of his son's predicament. Those who know Jones are of the opinion that his father will make good the amount of the checks.

Although Jones was arrested before it was known of his transactions here, he will be held in Colorado Springs for the present. A deputy sheriff from Pueblo came for him yesterday, but returned without him, pending settlement of the case here.

SENATOR SKINNER TO BE SPEAKER AT BIG PICNIC OF CARPENTERS JULY 4

Colorado Springs carpenters and their fellow craftsmen from Colorado City will hold their eleventh annual picnic at Stratton park, July 4. Carpenters union No. 615 of this city, and the Colorado City branch No. 417, will unite for the festivities, which will occupy the entire day.

In the morning there will be athletic sports for the children and youths, with prizes, and a comprehensive list of events and prizes is being prepared for publication. The big baked picnic lunch will take place at noon, and music by the Midland band will enliven the occasion.

In the afternoon Senator M. A. Skinner will deliver a short talk on "Some Live Issues of the Coming Campaign." He will discuss the public utilities bill, the recall and other matters of particular local interest. His talk will be nonpartisan.

The day's fun will culminate in a dance in the Stratton park pavilion, with good music and preparations are being made to entertain the largest crowd in the history of the carpenters' picnics. The entertainment committee are busy, leaving nothing unattended in an effort to make the day a big success.

ENTHUSIASM IN Y. W. C. A. CONFERENCE IS GROWING

The interstate conference of the Young Women's Christian association at Cascaide is proving one of the most successful the organization has ever held, and the delegates are enthusiastic. The progress being made, the regular classes and technical council occupied the morning hours yesterday. In the afternoon, the delegates made the trip to Pike's Peak, and were unanimous in declaring it a marvelous and highly enjoyable trip. Some 35 others took horseback and burro trips into other portions of the hills near the conference grounds.

Last night the delegates were addressed by Prof. Wallace Payne of Lawrence, Kan., on the subject "Paul, the Man." He gave a graphic sketch of the life of Paul, saying that he was a Roman citizen and a well-educated Jew, he had everything in his favor, which made him a leader of great power.

At 9 o'clock last night, there were numerous delegation meetings. The young ladies met in groups, by schools or states, and discussed the conference and told what they have enjoyed most and what good they have derived so far.

Today's session will be characterized by the usual morning classes and technical council at 11:15. At this council, the board of women from the city associations will discuss the study of the Y. W. C. A. The members of the city associations will discuss the study of the Y. W. C. A. The members of the city associations will discuss the study of the Y. W. C. A.

TOTAL OF $173,500 IN THE INSURANCE PAID IN CITY DURING 1911

A total of approximately $1,500,000 was paid out in claims and benefits in Colorado during 1911 by the big life insurance companies, and of this amount, the second largest sum, $173,500, was paid in Colorado Springs. Colorado City received $20,250, and Denver led the list with $1,882,800. The largest single premium was on the death of Charles E. Kountze, the Denver banker, whose heirs received $14,075. This was the twenty-second largest premium paid in the United States last year. Fifteen states received larger amounts than Colorado. The grand total for the entire country reached $682,640,000, and the largest single premium was $720,250 on the death of Frank T. Howard of New Orleans, La.

LOCAL MEN DEFENDANTS IN ALLEGED FRAUD CASE

Reports from Denver are to the effect that W. E. Gardner and L. M. Gardner of Saguache county, together with W. G. Haigler and A. W. Haigler of Colorado Springs, and the First National bank of Center, Colo., are defendants in a suit filed in the United States district court by Charles Knapp of Washington, D. C., accusing the four men of conspiracy to defraud him of $12,000 by selling him land that he longed to the state. The charges, that after the contract had been signed, calling for him to pay over the $12,000, and placed in the bank at Center, it was tampered with by W. E. Gardner, and that the name of L. M. Gardner was inserted in the contract, although he was not interested in the transaction in any way. The bank is held guilty of misconduct, the contract merely being deposited there.

In his complaint Knapp asserts that the defendants represented that they had a leasehold right to 320 acres of land from the Colorado state land commissioners, and agreed that in return for the payment of the money, they would see to the extension of the lease for five years. He asserts that developments proved they had no lease and could secure no extension. He further charges that he paid W. E. Gardner $3,000 and gave him notes for the remaining $9,000, but has blocked temporarily the return of his money. He states in the complaint that the defendants made an attempt to sell the land as they told him they would, because they had no title to it.

Last night, A. W. Haigler said that W. G. Haigler and himself are involved merely as witnesses. He claimed that there is nothing in the story from Denver, and that it is misleading.

The average cost of ocean telegraph cables is about $2,000 a mile.

TUBERCULOSIS PAVILION FOR CHILDREN WILL BE OPENED THIS AFTERNOON

The opening of the new pavilion for tubercular children will take place this afternoon between 2:30 and 5:30 o'clock, and the public is urged to attend, so that the excellent work being done by the Visiting Nurse association, through its children's ward committee, may be fully appreciated. All are welcome to call and inspect the building and equipment, and an interesting afternoon is assured. The reception committee, composed of Mrs. William A. Oles, Mrs. James W. Burns, David P. Mayhew, Mrs. Frederick M. Taylor and Miss Florence E. Standish, will welcome the visitors. The general committee in charge of the child affair is composed of Mrs. E. A. Wilder, Mrs. Alfred J. Hunt, Mrs. A. A. Blackman and Mrs. John G. Shields. Refreshments will be served during the afternoon.

Situated on the northeast corner of the grounds of Bethel hospital on the Union Printers home street car line, the pavilion is admirably planned. An inspection of its interior will rouse the interest and enthusiasm of every visitor. Built at an expense of $3,800 by private subscription, the building as it now stands is composed of two sleeping wings, one on the south and one on the east, a dining room, kitchen, boys' dressing room, girls' dressing room, two toilets and a large north play porch. The dressing rooms are fitted with lockers for each boy and girl, the capacity of the pavilion at present being 14 beds, 72 of which are already applied for.

Will Be Duplicate

When the building is completed it will be a cross shaped, and the second half will be a duplicate of the first half completed. The building is connected with the heating plant of Bethel hospital and will be supplied with hot water at all times. The telephone connection is through the branch of Bethel and the rooms are fitted with electric lights and gas. The plan provides for the open exposure of every wing with no direct north or west exposure. Transoms are fitted at the head of every bed. The plan is the result of much care and thought expended by William B. Clark, Dr. H. W. Housinger and Miss Standish. Mr. Clark also has contributed substantially to the financial success of the scheme. Miss Julia Dawson has furnished the pavilion throughout and has spared no expense to make it adequate.

The children's ward, also maintained by the Visiting Nurse association at Bethel, will be open to visitors that they may see the wonderful work going on there. Since its opening, hundreds of children have been treated for adenoids and diseased tonsils, many for St. Vitus dance and hernia, one child has been cured of a tubercular trouble of the eyes, and a successful operation on club feet has been performed. Besides a hundred or more other operations have been performed. The charity is supported entirely by the children's ward committee of which Mrs. William A. Oles is chairman. The kindness provided $800 toward its support for this year, a tea given by Mrs. James E. Burns netted $150, and the play written by Sifford Hamp and given at Perkins hall not long ago provided $400 more for the support of the institution. Mrs. Oles has plans for a children's day when a house-to-house canvass will be made by children for a small sum from each home visited.

CONTRACT SIGNED FOR ORNAMENTAL LIGHTING

The formal agreement was concluded yesterday between the city and the Colorado Springs Light, Heat & Power company, fixing the price the city will pay for electric current for the ornamental street lighting system. The current will cost 3 cents a kilowatt hour, with no minimum or maximum amount of electricity specified. The city agrees to furnish and maintain all poles, lamps and conduits. The contract signed yesterday is to be operative until December 31, 1915, and provides that there shall not be less than 10 light poles in each block, and the blocks shall be continuous. More poles may be installed if the city desires, and the cost per kilowatt hour will be on the same basis.

At yesterday's meeting of the city council the ordinance opening Corona street between Buena Ventura and San Miguel, passed final reading, and the city attorney was instructed to condemn what property is needed to carry out the ordinance.

The city clerk was ordered to advertise for bids for rapping and other work to be done on the dam of reservoir No. 2. Bids will be received until July 8 at 10 a. m.

LOWERING WATER IN NO. 4

Water Superintendent McReynolds spent yesterday at the city's moonlight water system and devoted special attention to reservoir No. 4, the dam of which sprang a leak several days ago. The water has been lowered about six inches from the top of the dam and there is no further danger. However, no water is running into No. 4 at this time, the streams emptying into Nos. 5 and 8 instead. No. 4 now contains 340,000,000 gallons.

BIG FIREWORKS DISPLAY AT ZOO PARK THURSDAY

Colorado Springs residents will have an opportunity to witness a splendid Fourth of July fireworks display at Zoo park, next Thursday night. James Gordon, a pyrotechnist from the Chicago Fireworks company, has arrived from Chicago and will have personal supervision of the display, which will cost upwards of $1,000.

Alderman Connelley, owner of the Zoo, decided that an elaborate display of pyrotechnics will be appreciated both by the tourists and local residents, and he has taken great pains to select a large and varied assortment of set pieces. The reproduction in form of the battle of San Juan and the fall of Mordor castle will be given as the headliner, and the other features will include waterfalls, huge flower pots, trees, beautiful rockets, illuminated balloons and immense pin wheels.

DEVELOP MANITOU TRACT

Incorporation papers were filed in Denver yesterday by the Manitou development company, which has purchased the tract of 30 acres on the north slope of Red mountain, and running down to within two blocks of the Manitou embankment. The site is being platted for summer cottages, and is being improved with roads, water and lights. The company expects to have all the work completed by July 15, and the lots will be placed on the market by the Hutchinson Hill Land Sales company, the same company which negotiated the sale of the land.

The incorporators and directors of the new company are: John Jay Knox, Mayor Charles T. Rowles, Willie L. Stratton, John L. H. Hutchinson and A. M. Hill. John Jay Knox is president, and Willie L. Stratton, vice president. Knox is a resident of Manitou, and Stratton is a resident of Colorado Springs. The corporation is capitalized for $25,000, divided into 250 shares of a par value of $100 each.

Doctor's Boyish Face Reveals Skin Renewer

I heard the other day the story of the physician with so admirable a skin that all his women patients asked the secret. He told one who knew him by old others, that knowing the remarkable absorbent property of ordinary-mercurized wax, he concluded this substance would make an excellent complexion renewer and preserver. Knowing the wax could not harm the skin, he began using it after shaving. He soon observed that the old, withered, colorless article was being gradually absorbed and replaced by younger, healthier skin. This was the simple secret of the silver-haired doctor with the boyish face.

The secret became public property, women everywhere used mercurized wax, applying it like cold cream, washing it off morning, continuing until the complexion is entirely renovated. An ounce of this wax, procurable at any drugstore, will banish the worst complexion.

Another valuable renovator, used by the doctor was a wrinkle remover and preventive in the form of a face bath made by dissolving an ounce of salicylic in a half-pint with hazel. This also has become famous—Aurelia in Fashion Review.

CIRCLES EARTH 13 TIMES; UNITED STATES FOR HIM

Alfred Powers, an Englishman, after circling the earth 13 times, has decided that the United States suits him better than his native land, and yesterday indicated his desire to become an American citizen by taking out "declaration of intention" papers in the district court. Powers was born in London, and although but 26 years old, has traveled around the world many times in the capacity of a ship steward.

S.S.S. REMOVES S.S.S. BLOOD HUMORS

Every pore and gland of the skin is employed in the necessary work preserving its smooth texture, softening and cleansing it, and regulating the temperature of our bodies. This is done by an evaporation through each tiny outlet, which goes on continually day and night. When the blood becomes infected with humors and acids a certain percentage of the impurities also pass off with the natural evaporation, and their sour, fetid nature irritates and inflames the skin, and dries up its natural oils, causing pimples, boils, pustules or some itching rash, or hard, scaly skin affections. S.S.S. cures skin troubles of every kind by neutralizing the acids, removing the humors from the blood. S.S.S. cools the acid-heated circulation, builds it up to its normal strength and thickness, multiplies nutritious, red corpuscles, and enriches it in every way. Then the skin, instead of being irritated and diseased by the exuding acid matter, is nourished, soothed and softened by this cooling, healthy stream of blood. S.S.S., the greatest of blood purifiers, expels all foreign matter and cures Eczema, Acne, Tetter, Salt Rheum and all other diseases of affections of the skin. It removes pimples, blackheads, and other unsightly blemishes from the skin and assists in restoring a good complexion. ONE MAN RESPONSIBLE FOR ALL AX MURDERS

Since the deadly ax murder at Vail, Colo., on a recent trip to that part of the country, a certain individual has committed the same crime. He killed the Wayne and Burr families here last September and that other ax murderer, mentioned in other parts of the paper, was the work of the same person. Barrell shot several times at Vail, and the information furnished by the detective is working on the case leaves no doubt, he believes, that the murderer is a person named "Maggie" of the name, in which the ax murderer worked at Vail. A newspaper article with the name "Maggie" there, that Barrell says there is no doubt that the crime was committed by the same man.
